A modern residential building facade featuring a mix of materials and geometric forms. The building has three main units visible. The central unit has a dark, textured upper section with a large window. The left and right units have lighter, smoother facades. The ground floor has dark doors and large windows. The sky is blue with light clouds. There are some orange decorative shapes in the top-left and bottom-center corners.

A photograph of a modern building entrance. The building features a dark, textured stone facade. A prominent entrance is covered by a dark, cantilevered canopy with a grid of horizontal slats. Below the canopy is a set of glass double doors with vertical handles. Two small, round, recessed lights are positioned above the doors. On either side of the entrance, there are two white planters containing green shrubs. In the foreground, there are concrete steps leading up to the entrance. The sky is blue with light clouds. The text 'Casa club' is overlaid in white on a dark rectangular background in the upper center of the image. There are also two small, solid brown rectangular shapes, one at the top center and one at the bottom center of the image.
