Far from the ordinary

Adjacent to the world renowned Holistika Hotel, discover a neighborhood that continues to preserve the true essence of Tulum..

A fine and creative mix of finishes to innovate the atmosphere inside the units. Chukum, marmol, polished concrete, parota wood and strong windows with special film to avoid the UV rays.

With our Eco-technologies such as solar panels, waste water treatment system and a desalination plant mixed with wide and luxurious spaces, Attha Holistika offers a smart and conscious investment.
