Sunset views over the Pacific Ocean set the tone at Casa del Atardecer, a home where daily life is shaped by light, sea breezes, and the quiet privilege of looking out over the water.

Located in the Altos del Cacique neighborhood, between Playas del Coco and Playa Hermosa, this home offers a balance that many buyers seek in Costa Rica.

It feels peaceful and private, yet remains close to beaches, restaurants, and everyday services. From here, the rhythm of coastal living comes easily, whether that means slow mornings, afternoons by the pool, or evenings watching the sky change color as the sun sets on the ocean.

The home is designed to be enjoyed with others. The main level brings together the living, dining, and kitchen areas, opening naturally to the pool and garden, a space that invites long conversations, shared meals, and time outdoors. Two bedrooms on this level share a full bathroom, making it comfortable for family and visiting friends.

Upstairs, the primary bedroom occupies its own level, offering privacy and a sense of retreat. With its generous size, private bathroom, and balcony facing the ocean, it becomes a place to unwind at the end of the day, take in the views, and enjoy the calm that defines this setting.

Casa del Atardecer works equally well as a full time home, a vacation retreat, or a property to enjoy part of the year while renting when not in use. Its central location, ocean views, and three bedroom layout make it easy to imagine hosting loved ones, welcoming guests, or planning for a future chapter in Costa Rica.

This is a home for those who value location, views, and lifestyle, and who appreciate the amazing feeling of ending each day with the ocean as your backdrop and sunsets as part of everyday life.

Feel free to reach out with any questions or to set up a visit, virtual or in person. We are happy to help.
