Property Description

Tucked away in La Ermita, one of Mérida Centro's oldest and most atmospheric neighborhoods, this home offers something increasingly rare: authentic Centro living without the challenges of a traditional restoration.

Behind its preserved colonial façade lies a 2019-built residence designed for modern life. The open-plan ground floor connects living, dining, and kitchen spaces into a bright, functional layout that opens directly to the terrace and garden. The kitchen is fully equipped with custom wooden cabinetry, modern appliances, and a breakfast island. A guest half-bath, pantry, and a garage with high wooden-beamed ceilings complete the ground level.

Upstairs, the home features a spacious master suite with walk-in closet and private bathroom, plus two comfortable guest bedrooms sharing a large bathroom. A separate laundry room, equipped with a washer and a dryer, adds everyday practicality.

Outside, a covered terrace overlooks a low-maintenance tropical garden with palm trees and a generous Chukum-finished pool with a fountain. A quiet green area at the back of the property provides space to relax or expand in the future.

This property is ideal for buyers seeking:

- A full-time residence in Centro
- Modern construction and systems
- Minimal upkeep
- Walkable access to historic neighborhoods without tourist crowds

La Ermita, recently designated a “Barrio Mágico”, offers a calmer, more authentic atmosphere than the northern Centro districts — while still being just minutes from San Sebastián, San Juan, markets, and the Plaza Grande.

This is Centro living for people who value comfort, reliability, and character — without compromise.

Location

Located in La Ermita, one of Mérida Centro's oldest and most atmospheric neighborhoods, this property offers a calmer and more authentic alternative to the busier northern Centro districts. Recently designated a "Barrio Mágico", La Ermita is prized for its historic character, colorful streets, and community of full-time residents.

Just a short walk from La Ermita Park and the Santa Isabel Church, the neighborhood forms part of the historic triangle with San Sebastián and San Juan, known for its restored colonial homes, traditional architecture, and strong local identity. Unlike areas closer to Plaza Grande, La Ermita provides a more relaxed residential environment while remaining fully connected to the heart of the city.

Markets, parks, cafés, and Centro landmarks are all within easy reach, making the area ideal for those who want to enjoy Mérida's historic center as a place to live, not just to visit.

DISTANCES FROM THE PROPERTY TO

MÉRIDA

Mérida, the capital of Yucatán, traces its rich history back to the ancient Mayan civilization and was founded in 1542 by Spanish conquistador Francisco de Montejo. Its historic center showcases magnificent colonial buildings and boulevards, including the iconic Paseo de Montejo, reflecting the city's past wealth and charm. As the gateway to the Maya world, Mérida draws visitors to nearby sites like Chichen Itzá and Uxmal while offering residents a modern, safe, and vibrant lifestyle.

Renowned for its high quality of life, Mérida attracts expats from all over the world with its exceptional healthcare system, favorable climate, and welcoming community. The city offers a rich cultural scene — museums, theaters, and cinemas — alongside fine dining, boutique shops, modern malls such as La Isla Cabo Norte or Galerías Mérida, and convenient North American retail chains. Mérida combines history, culture, and comfort, making it an ideal place to live, work, and explore.
